

Linked in Friendship, Connected in Service

Sundays@4

Presented by the Farmington Valley (CT)
Chapter of The Links, Incorporated

Feb 11th Capoeira Brasil Hartford • Capoeira • An Afro-Brazilian art form of self-defense, combining elements of martial arts, music and dance; developed by enslaved Africans in Brazil during the colonial period as a way of resistance towards slavery and oppression.

Feb 18th Dr. Khalilah Brown-Dean • The Influence of the US Democratic Process on Voting & Elections in the African Continent • In addition to being a nationally-respected expert on the American criminal justice system, Dr. Brown-Dean is an award-winning political analyst, advisor and commentator.

March 4th Gustave Lescouflair of Bethesda Medical Mission • Helping Hands for Haiti • The lecture shares the history and challenges of today's Haiti through lecture, video, and photographs.

March 11th The Crisis of Slavery and Migration in the 21st Century: Voices of Women and Girls • Presented in partnership with the Greater Hartford Chapter.

All presentations are at the Mark Twain House & Museum, 385 Farmington Ave.; Hartford, CT 06105

Open to the public • Free admission • Wheelchair accessible